

Criminal Law

Facing criminal charges or defending a highway traffic offence can often be uncertain and stressful leading to significant personal consequences with long-lasting effects. Proper legal representation is crucial to navigating the complex criminal justice system in order to ensure that you experience the fairest and most favourable outcome. Our experienced legal team, lead by Mike McArthur, is committed to providing powerful and effective representation every step of the way to obtain the best result possible. Where necessary, we will undertake and employ forensic analysts, private investigators, toxicology or bring various expert assistance and testimony before the courts.

Mike McArthur is certified by the Law Society of Upper Canada as a Specialist in Criminal Law and recognizes that each case is unique and requires professional guidance and a tactful blend of legal knowledge, experience and personal skills. Right from the start, Mike will demonstrate his dedication to provide solutions specific to your needs in the most cost-effective way possible. Our representation will involve professional preparation and negotiation. We always will be ready to take a case before the courts for every one of our clients.

If you, or others you care about, are facing a criminal charge in any court in the Province of Ontario, contact our office today to arrange a private and confidential consultation.
