

Maria Vanderspek

Maria Vanderspek, an associate of the firm, dedicates her time to assisting clients in a range of practice areas including Real Estate, Estate, Business, Corporate and Commercial Law. Maria, a Norwich native joined the firm in July 2007 following her call to the bar in June of 2007. Prior to joining our firm, Maria gained valuable experience in the consulting industry and worked with charitable / non-profit organizations during the co-operative work program that formed part of her business studies. Maria is also a part-time member of the faculty at Redeemer University College in Hamilton where she teaches Business Law.

Maria speaks fluent Dutch and brings a perfect blend of contemporary perspective and traditional practice, achieving the best results for her clients. In addition to her legal career, Maria enjoys being a member of and presiding on the board of directors of the Musica Sacra Chorus.

Education: Bachelor of Laws (LLB) Osgoode Hall Law School, Toronto - Bachelor of Arts Business (Hons) Redeemer University College, Hamilton

Area of Emphasis: Real Estate, Estate , Business, Corporate & Commercial Law

Direct email: vanderspek@clinebackus.com