

Jamie Pereira

Jamie is committed and innovative in achieving results in a wide range of practice areas. He brings new perspectives and common sense approaches to disputes as well as employment, real estate and business matters. He is technologically savvy, personable, approachable and fluent in basic spoken Portuguese. Jamie articulated with a large firm in downtown Toronto and has experience with large-scale corporate/commercial transactions and complex court matters. He joined the firm after his call to the Bar to practice law in Ontario in 2003 and is a member of the Sports Lawyers Association.

Education: Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) University of Windsor

Bachelor of Arts - University of Windsor

Areas of Emphasis: Business & Commerce, Employment, Real Estate, Injury, and Commercial & Civil Litigation.

Direct Email: pereira@clinebackus.com